WE had the pleasure of meeting in town one day last week Rev. A. W. Lamar, the genial and accomplished editor of the Baptist Courier. Mr. Lamar is making his paper one of the best religious papers in the South, and our Baptist friends should sustain it by a liberal patronage.

Ar the beginning of this New Year let every one make new resolves and see to it that they are kept. Turn over a new leaf and let its record be such be able to look back upon the present year and upon a period of life more profitably spent than any of its predecessors.
